Breeders' Day a New Feature of the Association.

THE GRAND-STAND ALL TAKEN

Great Crowds Are Assured for the Two Remaining Days.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

HARRISONBURG, VA., August 15 .-The first day of the eighth annual horse show of the Rockingham Horse and Colt Show Associations opened auspiciously here to-day. This is the first year that there has been more than a two day show but this year the management decided t add a day to be known as "Breeders Day." It was devoted principally to show ing colt classes and brought out som unusually fine exhibits in this line. The class for thoroughbred weanlings was unusually good. A noticeable feature o the shows in the last few years has been the improvement in the exhibits in these classes, which require thoroughbred blood. The class for draft stalllons brought out eleven entries, some of them coming from

In the afternoon two local classes were the chief features. One was green harness horses, confined to Rockingham county, exclusive of Harrisonburg. This had nineteen entries, while the local hunter class for Rockingham, Augusta and Rockbridge for Rockingham, Augusta and Rockinghag counties had eighteen entries, and some of them splendid animals.

The classes for the next two days are far more attractive for the public generally, and the management is expecting a record breaking attendance. Nearly all the grandstand room has been sold for these two days.

In Holiday Attire.

The town is gayly decorated, partly owing to the Horse Show and partly to the State Firemen's Convention, which comes off Wednesday, Thursday and Fri-comes off Wednesday, Thursday and 241-day of this week.

The promise of the next two days' show has never been equalled in the Valley of Virginia. The hunting classes are well filled with horses from the stables of such well known horsemen as Mr. and Mrs. Blair Johnson, of Warrenton, Julian Mortis, af Albemarie county: Dr. Owsiey. Morris, of Albemarle county; Dr. Owsley, of Albemarie county: U. D. Benner, of Warrenton; Charles R. Hoof, Jr., of Alex andria; Portner Bros. of Manassas, and other well known horsemen. The class for hunt teams riding in colors has five en-

CUTICURA REMEDIES WORK WONDERS

Mr. A. C. Barnett, proprietor of a general store in Avard, Oklahoma, tells in the following grateful letter how Cuticura cured him and his son of terrible eczemas:

of terrible eczemas:

"My little boy had eczema. His head was one solid sore, all over his scalp; his hair all came out, and he suffered very much. I had a physician treat him, but at the end of three mouths he was no better. I remembered that the Cutieura Remedies had cured me, and after giving him two bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, according to directions, and using Cuticura Soap and Ointment on him daily, his eczema left him, his hair grew again, and neither he nor myself have lad any eczema since.

As to his own case, Mr. Barnett says:

grew again, and neither he nor myself have lad any eczema since.

As to his own case, Mr. Barnett says:

"I suffered with eczema, a burning, itching, breaking out on my face for more than a year. I took treatment from physicians for several months, which did no good. I was then advised to try Cutieura. I took six bottles of Cutieura Resolvent, and used Cutieura Soap and Ointment freely every day. I began to improve soon after starting to use them, and when I had taken the six bottles of the Resolvent my face had become clear, I had good color, and all eruptions had left me.

"We use the Cutieura Soap and Ointment in our family now for general use, and it keeps our skin soft and healthy. I cheerfully recommend the Cutieura Remedies for all cases of eczema. (signed) A. C. Barnett, Avard, Oklahoma, Mar. 30, 1905."

EDUCATION AND TEMPERANCE

A Big Rally at New Design in Pittsylvania County.

Her Roughly-New Church Contract.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

DANVILLE, VA., August 15,-An edu ational and temperance rally was held to-day at New Design, about two miles from Danville, and was attended by about five hundred people. Addresses were made by Professor F. W. Boatwright, president of the Richmond College; Rev lames Cannon, Jr., president of the Virginia Anti-Saloon League, and Rev. E. H. W. Rawlings, pastor of the Main Street Methodist Episcopal Church, of this city. Professor Boatwright delivered an address on education and was vell received. Dinner was served on the grounds by the ladies of the churches insluded in the Danville circuit, the proceeds of which wil go towards the build ing of a parsonage.

ing of a parsonage.

A warrant has been sworn out for the arrest of G. Ed. Walker, a painter, who recently made sensational charges egainst Rev. A. G. Garr, the head of the Holy Jumpers, a sect of religious worshippers. Walker's wife recently became a convert to the religion of the Holy Jumpers, and deserted her husband, taking with her the two children, and fleeing to the Holiness Home. Rev. Garr was arraigned before the Mayor on the charge of enticing the woman nawn from her husband and the woman away from her husband and for secreting the children of Walker. The was dismissed and Walker declared case was dismissed, and Walker declared if he could not get his four-year-old boy, Chrence, back through legal process, he would take the child by force. He went to the Holiness Home this afternoon and forcibly took the child away. Mrs. Walker put up a desperate fight for the boy, but it is alleged her husband choked her savagely before securing possession.

The whereabouts of the man and the child which he tore from its mother's arms is not known.

child which he tore from its mother's arms is not known.

The contract for the rebuilding of the Cabell Street Tabernacle was awarded last night, and work will be begun immediately. The new church, when completed, will have a seating capacity of 2,000, and will be the largest in the city. Rev. James Cannon made an address to-night before the Anti-Salcon League, A wet and dry election has been called on in Danville on September 14th, and the prohibitionists are getting in shape for the contest.

IMPROVE MAIL SERVICE.

Effort to Secure Better Facilities Between Washington and Norfolk

Between Washington and Norfolk (From Our Regular Correspondent.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., August 15.—It is possible that a great improvement will be made in the mail service between Washington and Norfolk. A letter from Washington for Norfolk, if milled here at a quarter of 6 o'clock in the afternoon, will reach its destination early the following morning, before business hours, going by Potomac boat. The boat leaves the wharf here at half-past six.

A lotter posted after a quarter of six in the afternoon will not reach Norfolk until half-past eleven the following morning, going by way of Richmond, so that it will not be in the hands of the person for whom it is intonded until past noon, or eighteen hours after haying been written.

Passengers on the boat to Norfolk from this city, have to leave here at 6:30 o'clock in the afternoon. Norfolk is reached the following day at seven A.

M. If the boat is missed in the afternoon the trip must be made by way of Richmond, leaving here at four o'clock in the morning and reaching Norfolk at 11:30.

It is proposed that Norfolk-Washington.

COMORN, VA., August 15.—That un-yielding and uncompremising young love that laughs at locksniths and surmounts that laughs at locksmiths and surmounts the most formidable obstacles, has just treated King George to a little romance that smashes the record. Some days ago Mr. Ed. Mullin, a clever young citzen of the county, applied to Circuit Court Clerk E. L. Hunter for a marriage license. He gave his age as twenty-one years and three months, and a certificate from the girl's father gave the prospective bride's age as fourteen years and deven months. age as fourteen years and eleven months The license was promptly issued, an all arrangements completed for Mr. Mullin and youthful Miss Laura Ann Jenkins to be made "two souls with but a single thought" on the following day. But, alasi aliasi When the young man arrived at her home, according to appointment and plans, on the morning of the day set for the marriage, he found, to his awind surprise and mortification, that Laura Ann, his bride-elect, had suddenly and mysteriously disappeared—gone, gone, to parts then unknown. Dilligent inquiry and search were forthwith inaugurated, and it was soon learned that the young lady had another ardent lover in the person of Mr. Allen Taylor, and that she had secretly fied to a distant point in the county with this young lover, No. 2, preparatory to eloping, it is supposed, by a Potomac steamer. all arrangements completed for Mr. Mul
